WP(C) 4556/2007
BEFORE
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RANJAN GOGOI

The petitioner was granted a lease to run the Bhalukpung Tourist Lodge. After completion of the lease period of five years, the petitioner had filed an application for extension of the period of lease. Though the lease had expired on 30.11.2006, the petitioner continues to run the Tourist Lodge on payment of monthly dues. In the meantime, a NIT has been issued for grant of a fresh lease. Aggrieved, this writ petition has been filed.

As the term of lease of the petitioner is over and no vested right of extension can be understood in favour of the petitioner, no infirmity can be found in the action of the respondents in issuing the fresh NIT for grant of a lease for a fresh term. In such circumstances, the Court is of the view that this writ petition should not be entertained.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed.
